4 Additional information related to this program and/or the information provided above
This information only include graduates from July 1st, 2014 to June 30th, 2015. Please note that in many cases, our graduates do not always take their MBLEX right after they graduate. Although AIAM encourages students to take the licensure exam as soon as possible, in many cases students opt to wait, and therefore delay employment in the Massage Therapy field. For information on a wider spectrum of students, or to receive any additional information on the program, please feel free to visit AIAM, contact our Admissions’ staff, visit the FA Office, check out our website, or give us a call,
